2 I do not understand the encla-sure in your letter — I hope you have not been getting into a quarrel — The note is so enigmatical I cannot make out what it means — Who did the boy was not a gentleman? Tell me all about it in your next. A C626.

Mr & Mrs Dant do so far excellently well & if they only remain are all we need — Your father seems pleased with him — he is quiet, steady — has a square head like Mr Pies & Tommy & a scar in the face precisely like the former!! Is it not droll? — Perhaps it is some sort of university mark — She is an excellent cook & gives no trouble — They are very comfortable — I put the old ironing stand up in their room (Augusta's room) & they brought their own bedding.

They sleep on one feather bed & cover with another (literally not an eadon, but a regular feather bed -

The weather is still delightful the cold nights & morning.
Nina is out every day to church.
I attribute her good health -

I do miss you so my dearest daughter - I think I even miss you more than last year & did. I not think you were improving I could not stand our separation. -

Your father is really wonderfully pleasant & if it only continues I have but little to complain of.
